Volunteer for Project Homeless Connect 10!

Register now to volunteer and make a difference in someone's life at Project Homeless Connect 10 Friday, October 29th, on the Auraria campus in Denver.

Project Homeless Connect is a one-day event that provides individuals and families currently experiencing homelessness or at risk for becoming homeless with access to vital services such as: rapid re-housing, basic medical exams, food stamps, legal advice and much more. It's a one-stop shop for assistance that helps families stop struggling and paves the way for their success.

Volunteers are needed to fill variety of shifts and projects such as:

• Provide Client Support: work one-on-one with individuals/families to navigate through the variety of services successfully during their visit.

• Registration and Information & Referral

• Clothing and Food Distribution Mile High United Way and Denver's Road Home together with Metropolitan State College, Community College of Denver and University of Colorado are excited to host this meaningful event during National Homeless Awareness Month.

More than 6,300 homeless individuals and families have benefitted from Project Homeless Connect events over the past five years. Without dedicated volunteers like you this would not be possible!
