

VIP World Premiere of Krzysztof Wodiczko's newest projection art spectacular which gives a voice and a face to the struggle of homeless veterans and their families.

Grant Street, between 13th and 14th
(Valet parking will be available).

Aug. 22, 2008; 6:30 - 9:45 p.m.

Cocktails and appetizers on the plaza, featuring the Latin jazz/swing sounds of Mistura Fina

6:30 - 7:30 p.m.

An intimate dinner service, featuring the culinary creation's of one of Denver's newest dining gems, Baur's Ristorante

7:30 - 8:30 p.m.

Remarks from Mayor Hickenlooper and an introduction from Krzysztof

8:30 - 9 p.m.

World-premiere of Krzysztof's latest projection art, on the walls of the Aromor Building at 13th & Grant

9 - 9:45 p.m.

Suggested donation for an individual patron ticket: $150

RSVP: By August 19 to rose.williams@denvergov.org,
720-944-2902 or 720-944-2506

VIP World Premiere Art Exhibit during the DNC

Be a Patron Sponsor and Support Denver's Road Home and our Homeless Veterans at the Same Time!

Reaching Out Patron

Five guest tickets

Acknowledgement in the program

Join the artist for a private debut of the exhibit

$1,000

Back to Work Patron

One table (10 seats)

Acknowledgement in the program

Public acknowledgement at the event

Join the artist for a private debut of the exhibit

$5,000

A Place to Call Home Patron

Two seats at head table with the artist

One table (12 seats)

Acknowledgement in program

Public acknowledgement at the event

Join the artist for a private debut of the exhibit

$10,000

Mile High United Way

america's road home

This is truly an honor for the City of Denver as Krzysztof Wodiczko's work can be viewed in over 20 of the most prestigious museums around the world such as the Contemporary Arts Center in Warsaw, the National Museum of Modern Art in Kyoto and the Walker Art Center in Minneapolis.

Department of Human Services

The community owns this plan!

Denver's Road Home helps hundreds of men, women and children live life off the streets every year.

DenversRoadHome.org